The application must contain an outline topic of the proposed dissertation and a supervisor's name from the list included in Appendix 2 of this document.

The decisive date is the date of posting.

- 3) The fee for the entrance proceedings is 500 CZK.
 - a) The required information for payment of the fee into the EF USB's account are: bank account number: 104 725 778, bank code: 0300, VS: 6020112, KS: 0379, SS: birth certificate number.
 - b) Applicants who will not pay the fixed fee according to § 58, par. 1 of the Law and Article 13, par. 3 of the Statutes by 31st May, 2023 or who will not prove the payment with a bank transfer, have not fulfilled the conditions for acceptance and their entrance proceedings will be stopped.

- 4) Applications sent to the Department of Science and Research of the USB have to be submitted together with:
 - a) A certified copy of the document of accomplishment of a master study or relating master study at a college/university (diploma supplement and a certificate of final state examination). In cases where the applicants have not finished their master studies or relating master studies by the time of entrance proceedings, their possible acceptance for the course is subject to submitting the above documents by the date of enrolment for the doctoral study. If the master's study was completed at a foreign university, it is necessary to provide documents for the nostrification of the study according to the valid conditions in the Czech Republic.
 - b) Structured CV in the size of one page of text;
 - c) Survey of existing scientific activities and citations of publications using the normal APA 6th;
 - d) Document of payment of the fee for the entrance proceedings.
- 5) In cases where the application has formal shortages or is incomplete, the faculty will return it to the applicant for correction and completion. Unless an applicant makes the needed corrections or additions in due time, he/she does not meet basic conditions for acceptance and the entrance proceedings will be stopped. The fee for the proceedings will not be returned.
- 6) The fee for the English PhD programme (full-time and combined) is €3,300 per academic year. This fee is payable no later than the day of enrolment. If the fee is not paid on that date, the applicant will not be admitted to the programme.

Article 3 Entrance Examination

- 1) A due date of the entrance exam is fixed for:
 - 8th June, 2023 for the English doctoral study programme;
 - 7th June, 2023 for the Czech doctoral study programme.Applicants are informed about the date in writing together with other information concerning the entrance exam and a confirmation of acceptance of the application form for the course of study.
- 2) A substitute date of the entrance exam equal to the due date is determined in writing only to the applicants who were unable to sit for the exam at due date and who apologised in writing within five workdays from the date of the exam at the latest.
- 3) The form of the entrance exam is oral. In emergency situations, upon submission of a written request to the Department of Science and Research, it is possible to conduct the entrance proceedings online via MS Teams.
- 4) The purpose of the content of the entrance exam is to find out the applicants' predispositions for scientific work in a given branch. A stress is laid upon:
 - a) Knowledge of general and current problems of the scientific field;
 - b) Knowledge of methodology in the scientific field;
 - c) An understanding of the state of knowledge in the narrow range of problems of a chosen outline topic for the dissertation;
 - d) Knowledge of professional English.
- 5) A part of the entrance exam for the Czech doctoral study programme is taken in English. The entrance exam for the English doctoral study programme is taken only in English.
- 6) The Admission Board decide about the result of the entrance exam of particular applicants while paying attention to other aspects stated in their application form and its attachments. The Board votes with a simple majority of votes. In the case of a tie in the number of votes, the chairman's vote is decisive.

Article 4

Recruitment of government scholarship holders

- 1) On the admission of nominated government scholarship holders as candidates for study in the DSP under the Government Development Scholarship Programme pursuant to Government Resolution No. 77 of 28 January 2019 on the Strategy of the Development Scholarship Programme for the period 2019-2024, the Dean decides on the basis of the submitted documentation and a reasoned recommendation of the chairman of the Study Filed Committee without an entrance examination.

Article 5

Result of the Entrance Proceedings

- 1) The Board for Entrance Exams completes the protocol on entrance exams. A part of the protocol is a suggestion to the Dean concerning the acceptance / non- acceptance of applicants.
- 2) The Dean decides about the acceptance for the DSP on the basis of a suggestion of the Admission Board.
- 3) An applicant can ask the Dean of the FE for a review of the decision. The application for review must be submitted within 30 days of the day of delivery of the Dean's decision. The Dean can accept the application and change the decision or pass the application for the decision to the Rector.
- 4) The maximum number of accepted applicants for the Czech DSP is 15 students.
